

May 24, 2016

Update on the Blaine Manor Property Disposition:

The Blaine County Board of Commissioners heard a proposal today from the Alpine Investment Group, LLC to develop a family recreation center on the property which had formerly been occupied by Blaine Manor. The City of Hailey has also expressed an interest and wants consideration to place a public safety facility at that location. The County is scheduling a time to hear that proposal. A date for a final decision as to the disposition of the property has not been set.