

Hailey & Bellevue Canyons

Hailey & Bellevue Canyons Subarea
Cities or Towns	Includes the cities of Hailey (County seat) and Bellevue, and adjacent canyons with rural and semi-rural residential. Friedman Memorial Airport located within the City of Hailey.
Public Lands	58% managed by the BLM, 6% State land, and just 1% US Forest Service. 34% private land.
Geography	Broadening Wood River Valley floor surrounded by foothills.

Water & Wastewater
Wellhead Protection Areas	Protection areas for multiple community wells for Hailey and Bellevue.
Public Water Systems	The cities of Hailey and Bellevue have several community water sources including "Spring-Groundwater" wells out Indian Creek and Muldoon Creek, respectively.
Wastewater	Hailey Treatment Plant and effluent discharge point at Big Wood River between Hailey and Bellevue. (See Bellevue Triangle and Foothills page for Bellevue's treatment plant.) Several community drainfields in Indian Creek.
Rivers, Streams, and Lakes	Big Wood River, Croy Creek, Indian Creek, Quigley Creek, Muldoon Creek

Legend
Public Water System
	Non-community Transient
	Community
	Community Septic System
	Effluent Discharge
Wastewater
	Hailey Wastewater Treatment Plant
Community Wellhead Protection Area
	City of Bellevue
	Hailey Water & Sewer
	Highway, Major Road
	Local Road
	Seasonal Road
	Municipal Boundary