You don't often get email from j.hinson@cushwake.com. Learn why this is important

Muffy,

We hope you're well. My wife and I just moved to Old Haley from Ketchum with our 1.5 yr old son and number 2 on the way - we believe Hailey, for many reasons is the right place for us to raise a family.

Quigley has always been a favorite place for us to recreate, but now that we live in Haley, it's our #1 area to hike, run with the dog and baby, cross country ski, etc.

As a young family who uses Quigley several times a week all year to introduce our son to nature, we strongly oppose the Quigley Farms Development.

Before children, it was a great place for us to enjoy, but now that we're parents it's become special.

1. We oppose mediation and any conversation about Quigley should include the public.
2. The community of Blaine County strongly opposes Quigley Ranch and wants development out Quigley canyon to stop at Quigley Farms – for wildlife, for water, and for recreators.
- Hailey P&Z voted 5-1 to deny approval of the design and we believe you should do the same.

Thank you

Jack Hinson
